

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.6103 of 2007
Date of Decision: 28.4.2007

Narender Gupta

Petitioner

versus

Banars Hindu University, Varanasi and others

Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASBIR SINGH

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BINDAL

Present: Shri Sudeep Mahajan, Advocate for the petitioner

Jasbir Singh, J. (Oral)

By filing this writ petition, the petitioner has prayed that directions be issued to the respondents, to amend the conditions/ qualifications, to get admission in M.D.(AY)/ M.S.(AY) course 2007.

It is coming out from the information leaflet, issued by respondent No.1, to get admission in above-said course, candidates holding BAMS or equivalent degree and also candidates holding MBBS degrees are eligible and two separate tests are being conducted for above-said two categories. It is contention of counsel for the petitioner, that the procedure adopted, is discriminatory. On the basis of two separate merit lists, it is not desirable, to give admission to the one course. The petitioner further states that so far as MD(AY) and MS(AY) course is concerned, degree of MBBS has no relevancy whatsoever and decision of the respondents, to declare candidates with MBBS qualifications, as eligible, is liable to the set right.

After hearing counsel for the petitioner, we are not inclined to interfere at the instance of the petitioner. It is not in dispute that headquarter of respondent No.1 is situated in Varanasi. Leaflet Annexure

P/1 was also issued from that place. Besides that in the leaflet itself, under which, the petitioner has applied to get admission in the course, in dispute, it is mentioned that in case of any dispute, Varanasi shall be the jurisdiction of High Court of Allahabad. The petitioner has failed to satisfy us as to how this Court has the jurisdiction. No case is made out for interference.

Dismissed.

However, liberty is granted to the petitioner, to agitate his rights before the competent forum/ Court.
